Unused tickets must be returned within one week of your event. You will only be billed for tickets not returned.
- On-site Registration: When your organization provides a list of attendees, our staff is able to check in your guests and answer any questions or concerns about your event.

ATTENDANCE GUARANTEE:

- If you are using our catering services, you must provide us with a guaranteed number of people attending at least seven working days prior to your event. Charges for admission will be based on the actual number attending.
